

ESGOBAETH WRECSAM

DIOCESE OF WREXHAM

A day conference looking at the issues surrounding end of life decisions and dying well

‘What gives a life meaning is not how it is lived, but how it draws to a close’

Dame Tessa Jowell , House of Lords 24th January 2018

Friday 27th April 2018

10am – 4.30pm

Our Lady of the Rosary RC Church, Jubilee Road, Buckley, Flintshire CH7 2AF

Cost -£50 to include refreshments and buffet lunch

Speakers to include – Bishop Paul Mason, Auxilliary Bishop of Southwark; Dr Pia Matthews, Lecturer in Healthcare Ethics, St Marys University, Twickenham; Mr Steve Davies, Solicitor

All who are interested are welcome, but this would be of particular interest to priests, hospital chaplains and those who work in this field in any capacity. Topics to include – legal planning, end of life nursing care, spiritual care and The Art of Dying Well

Booking essential.

To book a place please complete booking form and return to Margaret Hinton, Marriage and Family Life Coordinator, Diocese of Wrexham, Bishops House, Sontley Road, Wrexham. LL13 7EW

For further enquiries Email - Margaretmfl@hotmail.co.uk

Tel -07842596878